2.1 AWARD

- a. The Host Radio Station will select the Beneficiary to which to award the Launch Bursary according to the terms and conditions agreed with the Host Radio Station.
- b. The Beneficiary must be a new student and cannot be a student that is already registered with STADIO.
- c. The Launch Bursary will cover the Beneficiary's tuition fee for the Beneficiary's first year of tuition in 2021 only, excluding the registration fee and any other ancillary fees. For the avoidance of doubt, the Beneficiary will have to cover the Registration fees per semester, including ancillary fees, text books and the like.
- d. The Launch Bursary is available to cover the tuition fees of the first year of the Beneficiary's undergraduate programme in 2021 and is not available for subsequent years of study or for any postgraduate programmes.
- e. The Launch Bursary cannot be transferred or exchanged for cash or any other compensation and will be used only for the purposes of covering the Beneficiary's first year tuition fees.

3.1 PROGRAMME

- a. The Beneficiary may select to register for any programme offered by the Institution, in either distance or contact modes of learning, as available according to the Institution's DHET certificate.
- b. In order for the Beneficiary to enrol in the selected programme, the Beneficiary must agree to the terms and conditions of enrolment.
- c. The Beneficiary will then be required to register for the specific programme selected and must complete and sign the Registration Agreement.
- d. The Beneficiary is entitled to transfer his/her enrolment from one STADIO programme to another, at the same campus, and in the same academic year subject to meeting the admission criteria of the other programme, and subject to following the administrative processes and timelines for registration prescribed by STADIO, and subject to availability in the other STADIO programme.
- e. Should the Beneficiary transfer his/her enrolment in accordance with e. above, the Beneficiary is entitled to transfer to another programme of equal or similar value.
- f. The Beneficiary must meet all admission criteria for the programme as prescribed by STADIO, in order to enrol and be registered for the selected programme. Should the Beneficiary not meet the minimum admission criteria, a representative from STADIO will be in contact with the Beneficiary to ascertain what programme the Beneficiary does qualify for.
- g. Should the Beneficiary not meet the admission criteria for any programmes as offered by STADIO, the Beneficiary will forfeit the Launch Bursary awarded to the Beneficiary, with no further compensation.

4.1 DISCLAIMER

- a. STADIO is responsible for providing the Beneficiary with a Launch Bursary in accordance with these terms and conditions and does not warrant the success in the programme selected of the Beneficiary.

5.1 FEES

- a. The Launch Bursary will cover the Beneficiaries first-year tuition fees for 2021 only.
- b. The Beneficiary will be obligated to settle any Registration fee or ancillary fees, including text book fees as applicable. Further details are provided in the Fee Schedules of the Institution.
- c. The Beneficiary will not receive the funds directly, instead the money will be allocated to the institutional account of the Beneficiary on successful registration.

6.1 CORRECT INFORMATION
